Internship in Mobile Application Company

About the Employer:
Our client is a small, entrepreneurial software company in Hong Kong founded by two German software engineers in 2006 and is specialized in the development of mobile applications. The company is a small and friendly startup on Hong Kong Island that is growing fast. They bootstrapped themselves without outside investment and have been profitable from the beginning. They are always looking for creative, motivated and passionate individuals to join their fast growing company and be a part of their exciting future.

They are a Western owned company and therefore candidates with overseas study, work or travel experience in English speaking countries are preferred as their client base is mostly international.

(Our client does not discriminate in employment matters on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, eligibility for military service, veteran status, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, or any other protected category. They support workplace diversity.)

Quotes from our client:

"With the internship, you're not going to want a TV and you'll have to decide between sleeping and checking out the latest nightclub, restaurant, or show. That's because we're located on Hong Kong Island, so when working gets boring, you can sneak out to the Peak, a recreation session, or a trendy club to find inspiration. (Don't worry, you can sleep when you're 80.)"
